

SENATOR VEST'S
SON FOUND DEADSeized With Convulsions, Due to Acute Gastritis.

DIED IN WASHINGTON HOTEL

HAD BEEN PRIVATE SECRETARY TO HIS FATHER.

The Young Man Was a Native of Missouri and Was Well Known in St. Louis, Kansas City and Sedalia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—George P. Vest, son and private secretary of Senator Vest of Missouri, died at the Columbia Hotel in this city this morning between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. He went to the hotel at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was seen last by the night clerk at 3 o'clock this morning, when he asked for ice water. He complained of feeling ill.

When the clerk next called at the room, soon after 6 o'clock, he found Mr. Vest dead.

Dr. Frederick Morhart of the Emergency Hospital was called, and said that Mr. Vest had expired not later than 5 o'clock. The immediate cause of death was convulsions, due to acute gastritis.

The young man was well known in St. Louis and Kansas City, where he had many friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Vest was 29 years old and was married. He had lived in Washington during the greater part of his father's quarter of a century in the Senate.

He was born and educated in Sedalia, and entered the practice of law in that city. During President Arthur's term he served for a year in the United States consulate at Liverpool.

After Senator Vest's health commenced to decline a few years ago his son was his constant attendant.

Mrs. George P. B. Jackson, wife of the attorney for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, is a sister of the dead man. She lives at 1019 Thornbury place, St. Louis.

Alex. Vest, his brother, also survives him. Mr. Vest's wife was Miss Agatha Wheeler of Vicksburg, Miss., daughter of Rev. J. E. Wheeler, a Presbyterian clergyman. They have three children.

HUNGRY BOYS AND A PULLET

Fried Chicken Came Next, Then the Sheriff and Then a Jail for These St. Louis Lads.

The story of Mikey Egan, Novie Trost and George Richting, runaway St. Louis boys now confined in the county jail at Meridian, Miss., is the tale of three hungry boys and a fat pullet.

Dispatches to the Post-Dispatch say that the boys were hobnobbing south when they met the pullet. They were eating fried chicken when the negro man, who claimed to own the fowl appeared and summoned the sheriff.

The officer interrupted the feast and is holding the boys until their parents in St. Louis send for them.

As the boys have been "roughing it" for several months, it is not probable that they will be called for.

Mikey Egan lives at 2110 Brantley place, Trost at 1465 Francis place and Richting at 1810 Bliddle street.

ANOTHER TOUR FOR PRESIDENT

Exact Itinerary Not Announced, but It Will Probably Include Bear
Hunt in Southern States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt will leave Washington next Monday at midnight and will not return until after the reception to Gov. Luke Wright of Tennessee at Memphis, Nov. 15. He will be present at the dedication of the Chamber of Commerce building in New York on Tuesday, and Tuesday night he will make a speech at the Chamber of Commerce dinner.

The next day he will go West and South. His exact itinerary has not been announced, but it is believed he contemplates a bear hunt in one of the southern states before going to Memphis.

Upon his return he will stop in Washington only a day, as he has accepted an invitation to attend the League Club banquet in Philadelphia Nov. 22.

STILL MORE CLOUDY WEATHER

Sky Will Remain Same Tonight and Tomorrow, Says Dr. Hyatt—Cooler.

More cloudy weather is in prospect. Dr. Hyatt's forecast for tonight and Friday calls for "probably cloudy" with slightly cooler conditions.

The doctor thinks there may be a frost tonight if the weather does up. There was frost at Wichita, Kan., last night, with freezing weather over much of Kansas and the Rocky mountain slope.

The high barometer is over the middle West and the south Pacific region, and the low rules the lower lakes and the North Pacific states.

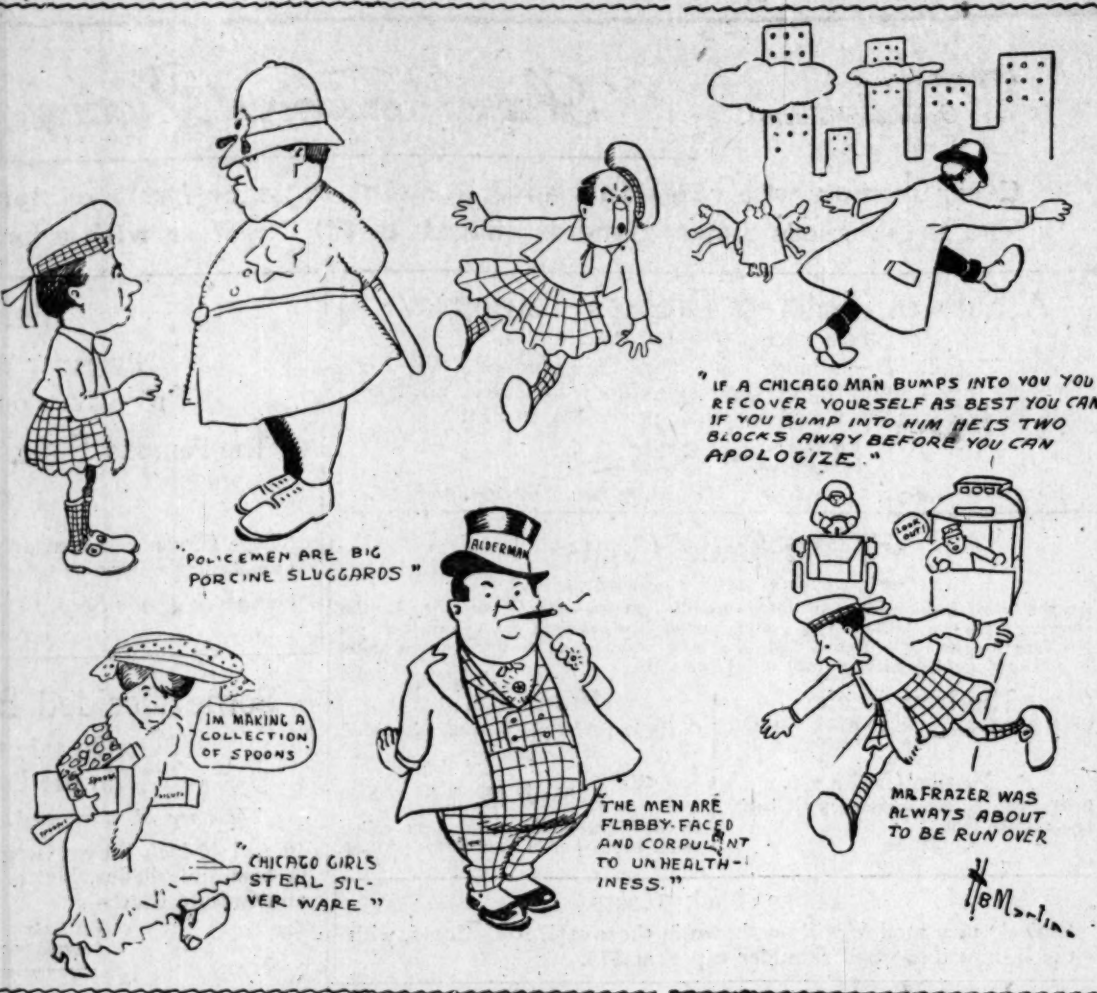

There is some rain in nearly all sections of the United States, but none very heavy. The mercury at St. Louis fell 8 degrees in the 24 hours beginning at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. The temperature this morning was 48 degrees. Dr. Hyatt thinks it will drop to about 40 by Friday morning.

THIRTY-SIX HOURS OF CHICAGO WAS ENOUGH

Chicago made a bad impression on Mr. Fraser, who came all the way from Scotland to study her life, institutions, morals and manners. He remained in the city a day and a half, and reached these conclusions: That there was life a-plenty, but crude; that her institutions are freaks; that her morals are loose and her manners abominable. Chicago is a pagan place, he says, where pork is packed and money made. He did not like the mud, which is not half so clean as the mud they have in Scotland, and the air is gritty with dust. Altogether Mr. Fraser had a bad time, and it will take a whole lot of coaxing to get him in a good humor again. Chicago will have to reform if it wants to get the advantage of a good word from him.

Nothing suited Mr. Fraser; No, Chicago was too rough. One day in the rapid city. For the Scotchman was enough. All the men, he says, are bloated; All the women are too gay. If your silver isn't guarded, They will tote it all away. Rude pedestrians bump into you, Nearly knocking out your eyes, And are gone ere you recover, Nor will they apologize. All the cops, he says, are sluggards, Laid to the very core. 'Yes, indeed,' cried Mr. Fraser, For their conduct made him sore.

Street cars, autos and 'busses Always try to run you down, Hence the frightened Mr. Fraser Is a-knocking of the town. So it is not very likely He will wander very soon From his own delightful ingle By the brace of Bonnie Doon.

Thomas B. Crews, probate judge (see office), based on earnings of last two years, will pay per annum $30,000.
Casper J. Wolf, circuit clerk, per annum $5,000.
Three circuit judges, each per annum $5,500.

License collector $3,000.
Nine justices of the peace, each per annum $2,500.
Nine constables, each, per annum $1,800.
Total $121,000.

Salaries aggregating $121,000 a year constitute the capital prize drawn by the successful candidates at the St. Louis municipal election Tuesday.

With the exception of $6800 this great wage will go into the coffers of Democrats. Of the 20 officers elected, ranging from judge of the Circuit Court to constable, the average salary is $4300 a year.

The real choice plum—more luscious than the three circuit judgeships and the judgeship of the Court of Criminal Correction put together—is the salary of the probate judge, a position which has fallen to Thomas B. Crews.

About a year ago the Supreme Court decided that the salary of the attaché of this office was payable in fees, and not according to salary; that at any rate, there was no statutory provision covering the salary feature.

Judge Henderson, accordingly received 18 months' back salary, amounting to $41,500. Lately he filed suit to recover a similarly large amount.

SALARY BASIS.

There is nothing in the work of the probate judge to justify such a fat salary—so the lawyers contend—and it simply means that the political party which controls it is enjoying splendid campaign contributions. It is said that an effort will be made at the coming session of the legislature to put the office on a salary basis, but as the legislature is strongly Democratic no "unfavorable" action is anticipated.

a Year—Three Fifths as Much as President

The probate judge has about eight hours' work a day. The average circuit judge puts in 10.

The Supreme Court judges of the state receive each only $4500 a year. Thus the lawyers say the argument is clear that the probate judge should not draw almost as much money as the entire judiciary of St. Louis.

The story is persistent that Judge James C. McCaffrey, chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners, is to be made chief clerk to Judge Crews.

Judge McCaffrey's friends do not deny this and the judge himself is reticent on the subject.

While the position of circuit clerk is but a cherry alongside of the probate judgeship, plenty of political resources go with it.

CIRCUIT CLERK'S POWERS.

The circuit clerk, with the approval of the judges, has the power to appoint: One chief clerk at $3000 a year, five clerks at $1800 a year, nine clerks at $2400 a year; three clerks at $1800 a year, six clerks at $1800 a year, four clerks at $900 a year.

Political pie almost as choice, but not so abundant, will be distributed by the clerks of the Criminal Court and the Court of Criminal Correction.

In the latter office John J. Manton can offer his friends:

One chief deputyship, $2500 per year; two deputies, $2100 per year; one deputy, $1800 per year; one deputy, $1500 per year.

With such high-class men as these salaries should produce, Mr. Manton will have an opportunity of improving the record of this office.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—Developments in the case of Alan G. Mason, the Back Bay man charged with the murder of Miss Clara Morton, resulted in his being held without bail when even the police admitted 12 hours before that they had no case against him and would not oppose his liberation.

New testimony throws grave doubts upon the seemingly perfect alibi offered in his behalf by his family.

Charles F. Brown, a conductor of the elevated railroad, went to police headquarters and asked to see Mason.

"That is the man," said he, and Mason shook hands with him.

The conductor asserts positively that Mason rode on his car, which left Waverly at 10:28 o'clock Saturday night, and that he and Mason talked about the Morton murder. Mason declares the conductor is mistaken in his dates.

Conductor Brown's story was as much a surprise to the state officers as to the family and friends of the accused. An information was at once sworn out and Mason was lodged in jail.

Another man who says he saw Mason was Robert Elder.

"I am sure that this is the man I saw coming from the pond in the reserved room Saturday night about 9 o'clock," said Mr. Elder. "When I heard of the assault upon Clara Morton, I thought at once that the man I saw had been down to the pond washing his hands."

Still another identification, which is regarded as important, was made by two Charlestown women. Entirely unknown to the detectives, the two women went to Cambridge and saw Mason. One exclaimed to the other: "That is the man; I know it."

The other replied: "Yes, he is." Police officers heard the remark and intercepted the women. They said that a week ago Saturday night they were accosted by a man on the street in Charlestown.

The man, whom they positively identified as Mason, placed his hand on one of them and asked what time it was. They saw something in his other hand that looked like a stick of wood.

At that moment a dog, which was accompanying them, sprang upon the man. He was frightened and ran. They were near an electric light and had ample opportunity to study his face.

The gold watch of Clara Morton, the McLean Hospital domestic, who was killed Saturday evening and for whose murder Alan G. Mason is charged, has been found in a Boston pawnshop, and the police are searching for a negro who is said to have sold the article. Chief of Police Watts does not conceal his belief that the murderer, Miss Morton and that Mason, who is now in jail, is innocent.

As there have been a number of assault cases in this city in which the principal has been described as a negro, Chief Watts considered this new phase of the Waverly affair very important. He said today:

"This certainly seems to let Mason out of it altogether."

The chief said he was using every resource of the police department to locate the negro and expressed confidence that he would be caught within 48 hours.

For some months these murderous attacks upon unprotected young women have been frequent in the suburbs of the Hub, and the death of Miss Morton, following so closely on the fatal attack on Agnes McPherson, who was assaulted on Chester street, Somerville, Oct. 3, created a veritable reign of terror. Women have remained at home after dark and special officers have patrolled the streets in vain waiting for the perpetrator of these deeds of violence.

The details of the cases were similar. Young women were the victims, and the slayer stole upon them and struck them down with some heavy weapon. Robbery evidently was not the object, for once the victim lay apparently dead the murderer fled into the darkness.

Several young women owe their lives to the assailant being interrupted at his work, and by only a hair's breadth has he on several occasions escaped the hands of pursuers, who came upon him in the act of battering his victims. From the very first it has been apparent that these deeds were the work of no ordinary criminal.

The great Italian composer was to have given three concerts at the Exposition Music Hall Nov. 17 and 18. Originally it had been arranged for Mascagni to appear at the Odeon and for that reason the telegram was sent to Mr. Walker.

S. Kronberg, representing Mittenhall Bros., who made the contract with Mr. Walker, arrived in St. Louis Wednesday. He arranged with H. E. Rice to attend to the further preliminary arrangements.

A number of boxes for the concerts had already been sold and crowded houses seemed assured, such is the fame of the work of "Cavalleria."

The abrupt ending of the Mascagni tour was a disappointment to the concertgoers in Boston Wednesday night of all the members of the Mascagni orchestra, here set up by the singers, upon Aubrey Mittenhall, the manager traveling with the company, for back salaries.

Dispatches sent out from Boston last night said that Mr. Mittenhall would meet the orchestra and the company this morning and attempt to effect a settlement. Mittenhall Brothers' telegram would indicate that he failed in his attempt.

H. E. Rice said to the Post-Dispatch Thursday that S. Kronberg tells him that the Italian musicians demanded two weeks' salary in advance before they began their tour.

The only reason he can see for the abandonment of the tour is that possibly the Italians made their usual demand for two weeks' salary in advance and that they might have been some hitch in paying it.

Weapons Used in Killing the Six Victims

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—In and about Boston, during the past three months there were half a dozen victims of an unknown assailant, each of whom was struck down and beaten with a blunt instrument.

Early in October Miss Agnes McPherson was assaulted in Somerville and she died from her injuries. Chief of Police Watts has been on the case since that time, and a man answering his description was seen flying from the scene.

These theories and some characteristics of the mental disorder alleged to have shown itself in Mr. Mason's case constituted the reasons for his arrest.

It was the theory of the police that one man was guilty of all these outrages.

The man now accused of these crimes is Alan G. Mason, son of the founder of the Mason family Co., a bachelor of 38 and a graduate of Harvard.

The evidence which the police claimed to have against Mason was purely circumstantial. He had been seen three times in the vicinity of the Morton murder, and a man answering his description was seen flying from the scene.

TRUST KING TO FINANCE $18-
000,000 ISSUE.
TO BE USED IN IMPROVEMENT

Julius S. Walsh and B. F. Yoakum
Have Completed Negotiations for Stock Increase.

It is reported that an official statement will be issued within a few days making public announcement of an issue of bonds to be made by the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis, in the sum of $18,000,000.

Arrangements have been effected with the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. to finance the issue, it is said, and the Central Trust Co. of New York is mentioned as the institution to which the mortgage will be made.

These arrangements are said to have been made by Julius S. Walsh, president of the Terminal, Benjamin F. Yoakum, president of the Frisco, and M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, who formed a special committee which met in New York last week to report upon the admission of the Stock Island Railroad into the association.

A meeting of the Terminal stockholders will be held here on Dec. 19 to act upon a proposed increase of the capital stock from $12,000,000 to $20,000,000 and to increase the bonded indebtedness from $12,000,000 to $20,000,000. The Western Ferry Co. stockholders will hold a meeting on Nov. 11.

FROM ALL QUARTERS OF THE GLOBE PEOPLE FIND BENEFIT IN PE-RU-NA.

An Interesting Letter Concerning the Merits of Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Anne L. Turner.

A Change of Climate Does Not Always Cure Catarrh.

A Favorable Climate and Pe-ru-na Is Well-Nigh Infallible.

CLIMATE will do a great deal for the cure of catarrh. The change from a low, marshy, humid locality to a locality where it is high and dry, with clear skies and bracing atmosphere, will do a great deal. In fact it will do wonders in relieving catarrh, but it will not do all. There remains something for Peru-na to do in addition.

The assistant manager of a large hotel for the accommodation of people who are seeking the climate of California for relief from catarrhal diseases, testifies that Peru-na is necessary in addition to the wholesome climate of our western coast.

We do not wish to undervalue the worth of a good climate, but it must be remembered that while one catarrhal victim can avail himself of the benefits following a change of climate, one hundred are not able to do so. Even those who can afford a change of climate will find Peru-na a good addition to their treatment, but for the hundreds who must stay at home Peru-na is absolutely indispensable. There is no other way to get rid of the baneful influence of catarrh than a course of treatment with Peru-na.

As an instance where Peru-na has been found necessary, even in the midst of the best climatic influences, we give the testimonial of Mrs. Anne L. Turner of California.

WORKED AFTER AN ACCIDENT

Stenographer, Hurt by Fall From Car, Tried to Carry Out Day's Task.

Miss Zoe Adams, a stenographer in the general passenger department of the Missouri Pacific at Sixth and Locust streets, was painfully injured while alighting from a Spring avenue car this morning.

She was coming to work from her home, 1385 Arlington avenue, and signaled the motor man to let her off in front of the Missouri Pacific building. As she was alighting the car started up, she says, before she reached the pavement. She collided with a man standing near and was violently thrown on the muddy street.

Bystanders helped her into an adjacent drugstore, where she was revived. It was found that her left kneecap was severely bruised. She quickly reported for duty, although barely able to walk.

When her employers learned of the accident they insisted that she should cease work and place herself under medical treatment.

Called Ambulance for Himself.
Patrolman Richard Liedtke of the Eighth district was knocked down by a Laclede avenue car at Leonard avenue last night and he called an ambulance himself and was removed to the City Hospital. His injuries are not regarded as dangerous.

Patrolman Harry Wilson of the same district died from injuries received within a block of last night's accident and in almost three hours he was buried in the city cemetery.

Both officers were avoiding one car and were struck by another traveling in the opposite direction.

LITTLE EVIDENCE AGAINST LESTER

The Illinois Farmer Charged With Assassination.

MURDER OF FRED LARIMORE
DAUGHTER AMONG SPECTATORS
AT THE TRIAL.

The Theory of the Prosecution Is That
Her Infatuation for Larimore Was the Moving Cause of the Killing of the Young Man.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 6.—Interest here in the preliminary trial of Millard F. Lester, charged with the killing of Frederick Larimore at Plainville, in this county, Oct. 23, is such that no courtroom can be secured for the hearing of the testimony. As many women as men are in the crowd and all are partisans of the Lester or Larimore families.

Lester, the alleged assassin, sits with his four lawyers and appears less interested in the proceedings than the spectators. This is probably due to the fact that thus far not a word of direct evidence has been introduced against him.

His daughter, Mrs. McKee, who is said to have been infatuated with the young man whom her father is accused of having killed, sat among the spectators this morning, deeply interested in the testimony.

Nothing has yet developed in the trial to show that she was overtaken by a half dozen witnesses, but nothing has been adduced to show who the murderer was. William Wagley saw Lester look through the window at the Plainville store and then walk away home before the tragedy occurred.

William Larimore, a cousin of the dead man, was on the stand nearly all forenoon. The state is trying to show by him that Lester could not have been the murderer, as is claimed, at the time of the killing.

The father of the dead man, Isaac M. Larimore, testified until noon to the condition of his son's body when found. The state will hardly finish the side of the case today. The defense will offer a half dozen witnesses beside the accused man. The hearing will not finish before tomorrow evening.

In the meantime Lester is out on bond. The people from the scene of the tragedy are arrayed on one side or the other, and a great deal of bitterness is shown by some of them. The principals are well-to-do and prominent, and the fear is expressed freely that the case will not be the end of the matter.

MAY LOSE MILLIONS BY HIS MARRIAGE

SON OF BRITISH DIPLOMAT WEDS AMERICAN DIVORCEE.

SIR HENRY HOWARD ANGRY.

He and Bridegroom's Other Rich Relatives May Disinherit Him for Marrying Mrs. Pearce.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Mrs. May Claggett Perin and George Howard were married yesterday in St. Aloysius Church. Mr. Howard is the son and heir of Sir Henry Howard, British minister to Denmark. His mother was Miss Cecilia Riggs of this city, daughter of a millionaire banker. The bride was Miss May Claggett, and shortly after her debut, was engaged to Augustus Whiting. On the eve of the marriage, Mr. Whiting published a card saying that the ceremony would not take place. The bride was ill for some time and went with her mother to Atlantic City to recuperate. There she met Clifford Perin of Cincinnati, who, with his mother, was a guest at the same hotel. Within six weeks of the broken engagement, the couple were married. One child, a daughter, was born of this union. The couple never lived happily together, and less than two years ago they were divorced. Mr. Perin died a year ago. The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Howard was announced last spring. Mr. Howard is a clerk in his uncle's bank here, and expected to inherit not only his father's fortune, but that of his maiden aunts. Both families expressed great objection to the match, and it is said, threatened to disinherit Howard.

During the summer Sir Henry Howard summoned his son to Europe, and, upon his return to this country, it was stated the marriage would not take place, but he has now married and may lose several millions.

Francis Riggs, his uncle, was present at the wedding, but his aunts were absent. The bride has a small fortune in her own right, and is the guardian of an inheritance for her child of about $1,000,000.

REAL ZEBRA WOLF FOR ZOO.

Only Specimen in United States Arrives From Australia.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The National Zoo is the possessor of a zebra wolf. The animal arrived today from New South Wales, Australia, where it was secured by Fred W. Goding, the United States consul at New Castle.

It is a remarkable sort of an animal, and receives its name from a zebra-like series of stripes along its back. It is a female, and seems to be a marabout. When it started from Australia it had three young in its pouch, but one died soon after the arrival here. The other two are doing well, and it is believed they will live. There is no other wolf of the kind in this country.

To Observe Week of Prayer.—In response to the call of the world's committee at Christiana, the week of prayer for young men will be observed by the Young Men's Christian Association of the world Nov. 8-14. There will be meetings held each evening in the Central Branch in charge of the Rev. Dr. W. J. Williamson, pastor of the Third Baptist Church of this city. Dr. Williamson will begin this series of addresses on next Sunday afternoon. These meetings are open to all men.

NOTHING CAN KILL THIS CAR PORTER

EXPLOSION THREW HIM UNDER MOVING TRAIN.

"NEVER TOUCHED ME," HE SAID.

Uniformed Negro Lay Quiet Between Rails While String of Cars Passed Over Him.

The explosion of a gas tank under a Pullman sleeping car at Union Station Wednesday night threw Thomas Crump, the negro porter of the car, in front of a Wabash train which was backing into the station. The negro lay still in the middle of the track and a long string of passenger cars passed above him. When the train had stopped he emerged from the trucks of a coach unhurt.

"Never touched me," was the grinning porter's first remark. Three men were in the path of the explosion. They were Charles Hood, a car inspector; Charles Wilson, a foreman on the Chicago & Alton, and Porter Crump. Hood and Wilson were badly burned.

The sleeper beneath which the explosion had occurred at once caught fire and was partially destroyed. A chair car of the Chicago & Alton, which was standing next to the sleeper, also caught fire, but was saved by firemen.

Carpet Ball Social.—The ladies of the Bond Avenue M. E. Church will give a carpet ball social at the church tonight.

FAIR GUARD SHOT AT THE BARRACKS

ATTACKED MAN WHO WAS CALLING ON HIS SISTER-IN-LAW.

TROUBLE IN SURGEON'S HOME

John McQuavey Objected to Attention of Cavalryman Holdan—Entered House Through Window.

John McQuavey, a former sergeant in the Eighth cavalry, now a captain of the Jefferson guard at the World's Fair grounds, entered the residence of Capt. F. A. Winters, post surgeon at Jefferson Barracks last Tuesday night and attacked with his fists Oscar B. Holdan, an enlisted cavalryman who was calling on Dr. Winters' housekeeper. The housekeeper is McQuavey's sister-in-law.

Holdan met McQuavey's advances with a revolver, firing five times. Two of the bullets took effect, one lodging in the intruder's lungs.

McQuavey was removed to the post hospital. Holdan reported the shooting to his superior, but he was not arrested.

McQuavey met Holdan when the former was in the Eighth cavalry. It appears, however, that he was not arrested.

Learned that Holdan was calling upon his relative it is said he threatened to make trouble. Holdan armed himself to meet McQuavey.

McQuavey went to the barracks Tuesday night to investigate. He called at the Winters residence and asked for his sister-in-law. She declined to see him. Then he climbed through the window.

Holdan completed a kitchen window. He has been advised to surrender himself to the federal authorities. Dr. Winters laid the matter before United States District Attorney Dyer Wednesday.

SCRUB WOMAN TOLD FORTUNES

Mrs. Thomas Followed a Vocation in the Day and an Avocation at Night.

Accused of Swindling.

John A. Connelly, manager of the Pure Food Supply Co., at 2919 Olive street, reported to the police Tuesday that a man giving his name as "McQuavey" had been several months representing himself as an agent of the Pure Food Supply Co., without authority to do so.

His method, Mr. Connelly stated, is to make a house-to-house canvass and promise the women of each place that with every two orders given he will present them with a beautiful basket of flowers.

He collects for both orders. It is said, when he makes the first delivery. The second order, it is said, never materializes. Hundreds of persons have reported being duped by the man.

McDonald, it is said, travels under a half dozen aliases, is described as 5 feet 6 inches tall, dark eyes and complexion, smooth face, yellow hair, streaked with gray, wears a stiff derby hat and dark clothes. He is about 40 years old and while making the first delivery was accompanied by a small boy who, he claimed, was his son.

Gaseous dyspepsia and nervous indigestion relieved immediately by Sulphogen.

Dr. Chambers Made Unsuccessful Search for Statistics.

To ascertain the vote of the Allied party at Tuesday's election, Dr. J. E. Chambers visited the election commissioners' office Wednesday. He says that he was unable to obtain the information. He declared that he believed that the vote for the Allied candidates, in city and state, was being held back by the Democrats until they learned what their own vote was. He stated that he expected in the very near future to call a conference to discuss the drawing up of a petition to Congress to pass a general federal election law.

United Irish League Will Honor Dillon and Davitt.

At a meeting of the United Irish League held at the Southern Hotel Wednesday night plans were made for the reception of John Dillon, the famous Irish member of the British Parliament, and Michael Davitt, the well-known Irish writer who will arrive Thanksgiving day to spend several days in St. Louis. Both will deliver addresses at the League, and will deliver addresses in Music Hall.

The committee to arrange for the reception is headed by Edward Devoy, chairman. Archibishop J. J. Kane, George J. Tansey, Richard C. Kenna, Matthew Kieley, William J. Kinsella, Festus J. Wade.

"Dreams and silver memories"

—Thomas Bailey Aldrich

Gorham Silver

Though not literally to be classed with dreams, is among the most cherished of silver memories to those in whose households it has found a cherished place for three generations. It is never out of fashion. Its sound workmanship and sterling material give it an enduring quality.

All responsible jewelers keep it.

BUTLER'S SEAT MAY BE CONTESTED

COL. REYNOLDS WOULD PERMIT FRIENDS TO DO SO.

SEEKS EVIDENCE OF FRAUD

Late Candidate Would Like to See His Eight Supporters in a Certain Precinct.

It is possible that the election of James J. Butler may be contested in Congress, notwithstanding the largely increased majority the returns give him.

Concerning the matter, Col. George D. Reynolds, who was Mr. Butler's Republican opponent, said to the Post-Dispatch Thursday:

"I haven't the money to make a contest, and I wouldn't use it that way. I had a lot of money, but I intend to find out exactly how many votes were cast for me. If I can, and if I find evidence of any fraud, I will certainly place it before the grand jury."

Mr. Reynolds was watching the election closely Tuesday night, and he was not satisfied with the result. He would like to see his eight supporters in a certain precinct.

Mr. Reynolds said he did not know what evidence of illegal voting the committee had secured.

The returns from the First precinct of the Twenty-second ward showed 335 votes for Butler and 8 for Reynolds. Through a morning newspaper, Col. Reynolds invited his eight loyal followers to call at his office in the Roe building at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Up to 11 they had not appeared. Col. Reynolds has some hope that more than eight may appear.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL IMPROVES
MIDDAY SERVICE.

NEW TRAIN IS A WORK OF ART

Five Superb Coaches Have Been Built for the Day Run to Chicago.

The Illinois Central railroad will put into service next Wednesday between St. Louis and Chicago a train specially built for the Daylight Special, which Division Passenger Agent C. C. McCarty pronounces unquestionably the finest train on the Illinois Central system.

Every car has been built specially for this train. There are five fine coaches, all ves-tigated, forming a complete train. They are, in the order named, buffet library car, parlor car, diner, free reclining chair car and smoker.

In exterior decoration a new and pleasing color combination has been used, while the interior is in moss green and light mahogany.

Every appointment in every coach is of first-class order, and the whole makes up a passenger train built for elegance and comfort.

The Daylight Special was put on May 1, 1902, at the request of the Business Men's League to provide a midday train between the two cities.

A desire to improve the service and further popularize this train has caused the company to provide the new equipment.

The new train will be on exhibition on track No. 18 at Union Station from 10:30 to 10 next Tuesday. All the coaches will be open during the hours named and visitors will be shown through by representatives of the passenger department of the road.

The train will make its first trip to Chicago the following Wednesday, leaving St.
Louis in the morning at the regular hour, and it makes the trip in eight hours.

PRISONERS FLED FROM PATROL CART
VOLLEY OF SHOTS ENABLED THEM TO ESCAPE.
OFFICER FOLLOWED SOUND

Negroes on Way to Police Station Did Not See Fit to Await His Return.
 Two negro prisoners, who were caught with stolen property in their possession, escaped from a patrol wagon while they were being conveyed to the Chestnut Street Police Station, last night. The men were presumably in the custody of Signal Officer Gardner of the Central district at the time they gained their liberty.
 At 9 o'clock last night thieves broke into the tailoring establishment of Adolph Schlesinger at 15 North Seventh street and stole several expensive overcoats. At 10 o'clock Officers Roach and Reardon saw two negroes trying to dispose of like clothing to a second-hand dealer at 305 South Second street. The negroes could give no satisfactory account how they came to possess the overcoats they carried and were arrested.
 The patrol wagon was called, and Officer Reardon got in with the prisoners and Signal Officer Gardner, who is constantly with the wagon, to accompany them to the station. While passing the barroom of Jim Evans Second street, two shots were fired from above the saloon, and Reardon leaped from the wagon to investigate it. He entered the place, and a moment later some bystander told Gardner that a man was shot.
 Gardner stopped the wagon to look about and as he did so the two prisoners sprang from their seats and dashed away in the darkness. It was done so quickly as to arouse the suspicion that the escape had been hastily planned by friends of the men, and Evans was arrested charged with discharging firearms. He says that he fired the shots to quell a disturbance in his saloon.

HOUSE TO BE ASKED TO ABOLISH ITSELF
RESOLUTION TO ELIMINATE DELEGATES IS IN ORDER.
DECISION ONE YEAR HENCE

Probable Substitute Would Be Single Legislative Body of Thirteen Members.
 Discussing the state constitutional amendment giving St. Louis the power to abolish the House of Delegates, Assistant City Counselor Woerner made this statement to the Post-Dispatch Thursday morning:
 "If the amendment has passed it is now in order for the Municipal Assembly to act on a joint and concurrent resolution to abolish the House and Council and provide in their stead for a body of 13 men, which shall be the legislative body of the city."
 "If the resolution is adopted the amendment will be submitted to the voters of St. Louis at the election one year hence—not before—because charter amendments can be passed only at intervals of two years, and three-fifths of the voters cast will be sufficient to carry the proposition."
 "The vote of the people of the state to grant to the people of St. Louis the privilege of abolishing the House of Delegates if they so desired, but an amendment must be submitted to the voters of St. Louis at the election one year hence. If the House should vote against it, it cannot be submitted."

CUP GREYHOUNDS ARRIVING DAILY

The Waterloo Coursing Stake Brings Animals From All Sections.
 Greyhounds to take part in the Waterloo cup coursing are arriving daily and are quartering at the Delmar Racetrack and vicinity.
 Ralph Orthwein's string arrived yesterday with Trainer McCaffrey from California. All the dogs are looking in the best of condition.
 Trainer B. F. Jackson also arrived yesterday afternoon with Lacy Crawford's string and he says that all the dogs are in the best of condition. Jackson says that the Waterloo Water has done all she has been asked to do, and nothing would please him better than to see her win the cup.
 Lord Brannon is better, also Imp. Wearburton. Jackson said that probably he had them drawn a little too fine on the Kansas-Nebraska circuit, and that he had freshened them up in the past week.
 He also expects them to help Laughing Water win the Waterloo cup. Mr. Crawford has added another good greyhound to his string. Roger Hunter, from the Bartlett Bros. kennel of Denver, Colo.
 Mr. Lyons' trainer, Brecon, has arrived, and has in his charge Texas Hector, Texas Blacklegs, Texas Corak, Texas Hoo-Hoo and Texas Nancy, all by For President—Lady Grey, Texas Betty, (Red of Ash—Trickett) and Texas—Climate (Emin Pasha—Silver Wings).
 Mr. Lyons, who is a millionaire from Sherman, Tex., and also president of the American Coursing Board, has made seven entries in the Waterloo cup, and one in the American Derby.
 Mr. Lyons has two of the best blue-blooded thoroughbreds ever imported into America, For President and Texas Nancy, the latter will be shipped to the New York bench show against all comers.
 The Walsh brothers arrived yesterday afternoon from Sacramento, Cal., with the great Sacramento Boy, which is quartered at Mr. Levin's kennel. Sacramento Boy, the winner for the second time of the John Grace Challenge Cup, is worth $100.
 Mr. Walsh was offered a high figure for this greyhound, but he said he did not intend to part with him. As soon as he shows lack of form he will be retired from public coursing and enjoy a well-earned rest.
 James arrived yesterday with four of Mr. J. H. Rosseter's greyhounds in charge. Among them are Rural Artist (Calconet—Imp. Queen of the Fens), Rubber Ankles, Red Artie, Aristocrat and Black Con. They are all in splendid shape, although seemingly a bit tired on the heavy side.
 Bartlett Bros. greyhounds of Denver, Colo., have also arrived, and several others. George McEwen has sent on to St. Louis from San Francisco. He was a winner many times at the parks there.
 The draw will take place at the Lindell Hotel Friday at 8 o'clock.

ALTON NEWS.
 The slot machine in the Alton police station has again been robbed. A cigar slot machine maintained in the police station, it was placed there by Ferdinand Volbrecht, chief of police. On last Tuesday Mr. Volbrecht was discharged. He was let out without being told why. He was simply told that he was not wanted any longer. Wednesday morning the ex-chief came to the police station to get his slot machine and the contents therein. Mr. Volbrecht says that the machine had not been opened for several weeks. When he opened the box and placed his hat under the opening to catch the little bunch of nickels Volbrecht offers a reward of $10 to the detection of the thief.
 Cards were issued yesterday announcing the marriage of Miss Lissy Cresswick of Upper Alton to Mr. John Rice, manager of the Kinloch telephone exchange in Alton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cresswick.
 The members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church held a reception in the parlors of their church last night for Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bushnell. Rev. Mr. Bushnell came to Alton from St. Louis two months ago, and assumed the pastorate of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.
 The members of the Alton Board of Education have announced that the date of the opening of the new Alton High School has not been decided upon.
 It is rumored that the Burlington will erect a new depot at the Upper Alton station soon. The Burlington handles much freight at the station near Upper Alton, and the new depot will be more for the accommodation of freight than for passengers.

LANDLORD SUED FOR CHILD'S DEATH
TENANT SAYS NEGLIGENCE CAUSED DIPHTHERIA.
FIVE CHILDREN WERE SICK

Tenants of houses will watch with interest the outcome of the suit instituted this morning by Thomas and Mary Tobin against William Baker, in which the plaintiffs seek $10,000 damages because of certain alleged neglect upon the part of a landlord to keep a house in order.
 The Tobins rented the house at 449 Marfitt avenue Oct. 2, 1901, it being a part of the contract with Mr. Baker, the owner, that the latter should keep the premises in good repair.
 The petition sets forth that the pipes leading to the sewer got out of order, and that Mr. Baker was notified several times, but failed to have the proper repairs made. July 1, the plaintiffs say, the cellar was flooded on account of the defective pipes, and Aug. 16 five of their seven children were taken sick with diphtheria.
 Three of the children who contracted the disease contributed to the support of the family, earning in the aggregate $12 per week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Tobin want $500 for the loss of their services during their illness, and for physician's bills, care, etc.
 One of the children, Raymond, 4 years old, died from diphtheria.
 The plaintiffs contend that the sickness of all the children was due to the imperfect drainage, for which they would hold the landlord responsible.

Divorce Too Dear.
 From the New York Times.
 Rev. O. P. Eaches, D. D., of Hightstown, N. J., started his fellow members of the Baptist Ministerial Union by declaring at a meeting that the cost of obtaining divorces is too great in this country and that a uniform rate of $10 should be established. He explained his position in this way: "In this state it costs anywhere from $5 to $100 for a divorce, the amount being too great for those of the middle classes to pay. The result is that instead of being divorced they simply part and marry as will."

ABSOLUTE FAITH.
 You Can Depend Upon the Word of This St. Louis Citizen.
 He has had the experience.
 He has thoroughly tested the article.
 He has found it as represented.
 He has absolute faith in its merit.
 Mr. Charles A. Juengel, florist, of 1837 to 1847 South Fourteenth street, says: "Every morning when I went to get out of bed and for an hour or two hours afterward the pain in my back was very observable. Later in the day it was only noticeable when I stooped or brought any strain on the muscles of the back, or caught cold in the loins. It annoyed me for a year. I was told one day that there was something wrong with my kidneys and this led me to go to Wolff-Wilson's, corner Sixth and Washington avenue, for Doan's Kidney Pills, and take a course of the treatment. After three weeks I did not feel any trace of the backache and I discontinued the medicine. Since then I have not noticed a recurrence."
 For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

"Mother Katherine" Drexel Builds New Mission.

SPENT MILLIONS ON INDIANS

SHE IS MEMBER OF RICH PHILADELPHIA FAMILY.

In Her New Religious Enterprise in Arizona Brick for School Will Be Hauled Across Desert From Western Kansas.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 6.—Many of the Indian mission schools of Oklahoma and Indian Territory have been started and maintained by Miss Kate Drexel of Philadelphia, the sister of John Drexel, the present head of the famous banking house of that name. Since 1889 she has been "Mother Katherine" Drexel, having taken the veil in that year that she might the more easily devote her time and money to the uplifting of the Indians.

She has been in Oklahoma during the past two weeks, visiting the Indian missions, taking much interest in the work being done in each. She spent several days in Guthrie, the guest of Mr. E. W. Theodore Meerschaert, bishop of Oklahoma and Indian Territory, with whom she conferred relative to her school.

At Chillico, where the most important Indian school in the southwest is located, she visited last week. This school was first started by her and afterward taken hold of by the government, which saw in it the nucleus for an excellent industrial institution for Indians. There are now 500 Indian students at Chillico.

Near Pawhuska, in the Osage Reservation, she built the St. Louis and the St. John schools, both flourishing institutions. The buildings are very handsome and the commodious structures, planned personally by Mother Katherine, and several others of similar pattern she has started in the Cherokee and Creek nations in Indian Territory.

At Sacred Heart, the oldest institution of learning west of the Mississippi river, she has done much to build up the school since its partial destruction by fire two years ago. Its head is the Rt. Rev. Felix De Grasse, a direct descendant from the French admiral who gave the United States such great assistance during the Revolutionary war.

On this western trip Mother Katherine is accompanied by her sister, Miss Josephine Drexel of Philadelphia, who is greatly interested in the schools being maintained by the Drexel money. From Oklahoma and Indian Territory, Mother Katherine goes to Arizona, where she is to build a mission school for the Navajo Indians, the first attempt to bring religious teachings into this tribe. This building will cost $50,000, and the brick from the construction must be freighted from western Kansas, across barren plains to the reservation inhabited by this populous tribe. The undertaking is very difficult in many ways, but to Mother Katherine is due the honor of being the first to teach the Navajo Christianity.

The Drexels approve of the course followed by Mother Katherine, and take a great interest in her work. The greater portion of her 40 years has been spent in studying the Indian problem, until today she is considered the best authority on this subject in America. She has expended millions in this manner, representing only the interest on her money, and every cent is expended under the direction of the interior department. She looks with much pride upon the progress made by her schools in Oklahoma, and says she feels amply repaid for her work in teaching and uplifting the Indian youth.

BLANK DIAGNOSIS EXCLUDED.
State's Attempt to Introduce It Against Molinieux Fails.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—When court opened today in the Molinieux trial, David Carvalho, the handwriting expert who was on the stand when adjournment was taken last night, resumed his place in the witness chair.

He said he did not believe that Molinieux wrote the poison package wrapper or any of the disputed writings and then in detail he explained to the jury his reasons for his opinions.

As soon as the direct examination of Carvalho was completed, Mr. Osborne, assistant district attorney, made another attempt to introduce the "blank" diagnosis in evidence, but Justice Lambert declined to reverse his earlier ruling, excluding it.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away by a mighty flood, until today the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SOLD 1000 POST-DISPATCHES

George Ackerman, Newsboy at Eighth and Olive Streets, Broke His Former Good Record.

George Ackerman, Post-Dispatch newsboy at Eighth and Olive streets, broke his own good record Wednesday by selling 1006 copies of the Post-Dispatch.

Several times George has tried to make a 1000-day record, but has fallen a little short. Yesterday he told the other newsboys that he was going to reach the 1000 mark "or bust."

There was much suppressed excitement last evening in the newsboys' room at the Post-Dispatch office. A large group of paper merchants had gathered, after "turning in" to discuss the probability of Ackerman's having reached the high mark he had set.

They waited anxiously for George to "turn in," by which is meant reporting at the office the number of copies sold and paying for the same.

Pickets were placed in Post-Dispatch alley to herald the coming of the newsboy. At last he was sighted, and some of the little fellows made a rush for him.

"Did you do it, George?" one cried, while another called out, "Don't your life be wide as your face!"

George's face was a wreath of smiles. "I sold 1006," said the proud newsboy. "Why, it was dead easy. Everybody wanted the Post-Dispatch, and I kept the supply man busy delivering papers to me."

"I've tried it several times before, but always fell just a little short. Today was determined to sell a thousand, even if I had to stay out an hour later; but I found that my supply was exhausted half an hour earlier than usual, and I had sold more than a thousand copies of the Post-Dispatch."

"Hereafter I expect to reach the 1000-mark often," he declared for his home.

MARRIED ON A TRAIN.

Romantic Wedding of Miss Gilmair and Lloyd Roberts.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 6.—Lloyd Roberts and Blanche Gilmair of Pleasant Hill, Ill., were married romantically last night on a train, while it was speeding on its way to this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Orr of Green County, Illinois, in the presence of the passengers of the different coaches, who were invited to witness the ceremony by Conductor John Jones.

The couple left their home at Pleasant Hill after receiving their license, intending to wed at Roodhouse, but were disappointed when they learned that in Illinois the ceremony must be performed in the county where the license is issued.

They secured the services of Dr. Orr and boarded the Mexico train, and when their coach crossed the line into their home county they stood up in their seats and were pronounced man and wife as the train sped on its way to this city.

The minister got off at the next station and took another train homeward. The couple rode on to their home at Pleasant Hill.

Law Class Banquet.—The law class of Central Branch Y. M. C. A. will take supper together in the building tomorrow evening. Judge Shepard Barclay has charge of this class, which is a very large one.

MISSSES RUMSEY ARE HANDICAPPED

MUST PLAY WONDERFUL GOLF TO WIN IN FINALS.

PLAY WILL BEGIN TODAY

Opening Round Was to Have Been Played Yesterday, but Was Postponed on Account of the Weather.

Weather permitting the qualifying round in the women's handicap golf contest for the cup donated by J. H. Murphy will be played on the links of the Glen Echo Golf Club at Normandy today. The opening round was to have been played yesterday but was postponed on account of the weather.

The tournament, which from scratch would be an easy thing for the Rumsey sisters, has been made difficult for them by the handicapping, and the dark horses will have a chance to finish first.

The qualifying rounds of play call for nine holes, medal play. The Misses Rumsey were placed at scratch, and besides they have to add 10 strokes to the score they make. Mrs. Albert Bond Lambert and Mrs. White are also marked scratch.

Without the 10 strokes to be added to the score of the Misses Rumsey, other handicaps place the remaining contestants at from 2 to 7 strokes.

The allotments have caused much dissatisfaction among the friends of the Misses Rumsey, who say they have been given the worst of the handicapping. In the match play, which will be at 18 holes, the handicapping is as follows: The Misses Rumsey, scratch; Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. White, 15; Mrs. Newberry, 18; Mrs. Wagoner, 20; Mrs. Buck, Van Riper and James, 22; Mrs. Albach and Mrs. Cochran, 24; and Mrs. Beach, 27.

MISS EDNA PILCHER WEDS.

Became the Wife of Stuart E. Knappen
Last Night.

Miss Edna Pilcher and Mr. Stuart E. Knappen were married last night at the Lindell Avenue Methodist Church before a fashionable assemblage. A reception was held later, from 9 to 11 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pilcher, and the couple departed for an eastern trip.

Mrs. John Waller Barriger was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Emma McKean, Lena Dula, Rose Nalle, Florence Knappen and Katherine Matland.

Mr. Fred Knappen, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Foris Stevens, Henry H. E. Barclay Jones, Laddie Coleman, Harry Cleveland and Ted Pilcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Knappen will reside in Grand Rapids, Mich., where the groom is a business man.

JAMES SWENEY'S FUNERAL.

He also served on the Mulanphy Board for several years.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The North Side Branch of the Y. M. C. A. will give a concert and cantata at the Central Branch Hall, Grand and Franklin avenues, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The program will be as follows: Piano solo by Mr. Frederick Pfeiffer, two recitations by Miss Laura Krenning, violin solo by Mrs. J. H. Egert, tenor solo by Mr. Chas. W. Brainerd, Cantata, "Rebekah," by a chorus of the Evangelical St. John's Church, consisting of 30 voices, under the direction of Mr. S. Buchmueller, assisted by Mr. Frederick Pfeiffer, accompanist.

MIDWEEK GOSSIP OF THE THEATERS

Starting with almost the house record on Sunday night, Dr. Wolf Hopper, with "Mr. Pickwick," has kept up his gait and promises to break the record for the week at the Century before his engagement closes.

There are two reasons for this. First, the popularity of Mr. Hopper, and second, the popularity of Mr. Pickwick. Either would be a drawing card, but when you put the two of them together, even the Horse Show cannot stand against them.

Mr. Sothen is also doing a good business at the Olympic, but not as good as such a play and such a player ought to do. The Horse Show, however, is largely responsible for this. But even with this against him, there should not be a great falling off, for it is unlikely that we shall have a better attraction in St. Louis this year.

"All on Account of Elias," at the Grand, and "A Hot Old Time," at the Imperial, are doing well. The Horse Show isn't butting them, or "A Desperate Chance," at the Lyric.

Burton Holmes, the well-known traveler and lecturer, will be heard at the Lyric this evening in his new lecture, "Portugal, the Land of Beauty." Mr. Holmes has heard several times last season, and his popularity increases with each successive lecture. During the past summer he has traveled much in Europe, and his lecture will be full of fresh and interesting material. The lectures will be elaborately illustrated.

There were people in front of the Olympic at 4 o'clock this morning waiting for the Mansfield sale to open. There were several hundred at 9 o'clock. It looked like a grand opera sale all right. Of course the cheerful old man was about telling how hard it was to get seats. Mr. Mansfield's representative said:

"Figure on the possibility of truth in that gossip. It is generally agreed that it takes on an average one minute to sell each purchaser, and that each person buys one pair of seats. Of course the more, but some take only one and some inquirers none. The box office is open 90 minutes a day; that means an average of 1200 tickets a day if a pair is sold every minute. There are about 230 seats in the Olympic. You see it would take 12 days to sell the 15,600 tickets for Mr. Mansfield's seven appearances in 'Julius Caesar.' Does this give you any idea of the fast and furious selling it requires to sell out every seat in the big Olympic Theater before the curtain goes up on the last performance of 'Julius Caesar'?"

The sale today may be a record, but it is not the first day, but that scattered over seven performances, makes only a comparatively light impression on the front seats.

The Mansfield sale has really been the biggest of the season. There have also been the largest lot of known large sections of schools, especially private and boarding schools, are coming in. The opportunity to see Shakespeare's glorious tragedy has not been vouchsafed us in 15 years. There is much reason to believe that it may be 15 years again before it will be revived. It always awaits a great Brutus and a man with patience, skill and a prodigious purse to make the outlay of a fortune for the splendid Roman pictures and pageantry. There are in Mansfield's elaborate revival nine massive settings from designs by Sir Alma Tadema, R. A., and upwards of 30 people in the celebrated mob scenes.

The attraction at the Century next week will be Primrose and Dockstader's minstrel, which are said to be the best ever. If this is so they ought to be pretty good.

Valerie Bergere and company are presenting at the Columbia this week for the first time Grace Greenwood's playette, "Ella's First Love." It is easily one of the cleverest bits of comedy-drama that has been offered in this city this season, and is winning great favor with the patrons of that house. Smith and Fuller, who are second in point of prominence on the bill, are also a big hit. Their musical novelties are splendid, especially the harp playing of Miss Fuller. Other good numbers of the bill, in which, by the way, there is not a poor number, are Miss Florence Beach and the Panzer Trio, Colby and Way, Swan and Barnard and Harry Thomson.

Lewis Morrison, famous all over the country for the subtle and finest exposition of Satan the modern stage can show, will himself appear at the Grand next week for the last time as Mephisto in "Faust," with a cast and scenery which surpass those of all previous productions of this play. With Lewis Morrison himself as Mephisto a good production is guaranteed. The production is acrobatic and in point of acting, the finest staged of this particular play.

In "A Hot Old Time," the current attraction at the Imperial next week, is one of the most laughable entertainments. "For Love and Honor," a comedy drama, of strong thrilling interest, will be the attraction at the Imperial next week. The story of the play is an exciting tale of a conspiracy to ruin a man's fair name, steal from him his wife and ruin his father. The tale of the machinations of two Wall Street financiers, who are scheming to ruin a man's fair name, steal from him his wife and ruin his father. The tale of the machinations of two Wall Street financiers, who are scheming to ruin a man's fair name, steal from him his wife and ruin his father.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. O. D. S. Conner, a former St. Louis boy, have seen with pleasure his work at the Century Theater this week. He takes the part of Dr. Beaumont, the Dr. Wolf Hopper company, and does what he has to do very nicely. He has a good stage presence, and Conner deserves credit for the progress he has made in so short a time.

"Across the Pacific," which comes to the Lyric Sunday matinee, is built on some of the most interesting material of the incidents that followed the war with Spain in connection with the sanguinary struggles with the natives in the Philippines. One of the best of these is in the fight in the blockhouse. "A Desperate Chance," at the Lyric this week, tells a story of crime, but it is one that will do good rather than harm.

Coming to the Columbia next week: Wilfred Clarke and company, Stuart Barnes, the Three Jockeys, Howard's Pony Circus, Hacker and Lester, Will H. Fox, Mary DuPont and company, Thomas Nast, Jr., the Standard Quartet, Turner and De Granville, Margaret Scott and Holmes and Waldron.

Prof. Dick Richards and his pupils will give the first of their entertainments of the season Sunday evening at the Lyric. Richards' new academy. An excellent program is promised.

The Cracker Jacks will be the Standard's attraction next week. This week the Morning Glories are doing a big business.

"Iris," Mascagni's latest opera, will be given at Music Hall Nov. 17. "Ratcliff" will also be presented. The Standard Quartet and his orchestra will give "Iris" Nov. 17. "Ratcliff" will be produced at the Lyric. "Zanetto" will be announced for the evening of Nov. 18. Seats are now on sale at Holliman's.

WOMAN SUES RAILROAD.
Mrs. Nannie A. Carter, formerly of Texarkana, Ark., filed suit against the Washburn and St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway this morning for $4000 damages. She alleges that she purchased a ticket from the Texarkana agent of those roads for transportation to Woodstock, Ontario, which was near Ottaville, where she wished to go on a visit.

She alleges that the agent told her she would have to change cars only once, at St. Louis, and that she was to get off at Glencoe, Canada, which was far from her destination, and she was forced to endure a journey which continued her to her bed for five months after she reached Ottaville, and that she is still in bad health as a result of it. She claims that she was in delicate health at the time she purchased the ticket for $1.00.

Each of the above roads is sued for $30,000.

Furniture Board of Trade.
Two tickets will be presented to the members of the St. Louis Furniture Board of Trade at their annual election meeting at their headquarters, 110 North Eighth street, next Monday evening.

J. A. Steinmeyer, L. G. Kregel and Miles Foster, committee on nominations, reported the following: President, Joseph J. Gruender; first vice-president, W. M. Roscher; second vice-president, George C. Diederich; secretary, George T. Parker, and treasurer, Ernest Lucas.

A second committee, consisting of J. H. Kenton, T. H. Conrades and C. J. Joseph, reported a contesting ticket committee. The following names: President, T. T. Lingo; William Frank Alf Webb, E. C. Handtner, George Brimmer, John Yerkes, Charles E. P. A. Hiner, George Kaiser, John A. Warner, George Mellon, Joseph Joering and Ed Prodek.

Wouldn't Take His Money.
A suit for $25,000 damages was filed yesterday afternoon by Lewis B. Jones against the Rutledge & Kilpatrick Realty Co., Claude Kilpatrick and John W. Liggett, under the will of John E. Liggett, R. W. Rutledge and the Edmund Realty Co.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendants own a lot in block 7 west, fronting on the corner of Third street. He says that he had entered into an agreement to purchase the property from the defendants, and that he had paid them $25,000 for the same. He alleges that the defendants have refused to deliver the property to him, and that he is entitled to a refund of his money.

This he alleges, was agreed to in writing on Nov. 1, 1919. He alleges, an offer of the earnest money was made. It was refused by the defendants, and immediately the action for damages was instituted.

Says Wife Uses Drugs.

In the Circuit Court Wednesday afternoon Harry A. Mansfield filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Mansfield. They were married June 9, 1917, in Hinds County, Miss., and lived together until Dec. 18, 1919. The petition recites that the wife for the past two years has been addicted to the excessive use of drugs, and that while under their influence she is grossly extravagant, giving away and disposing of valuable property and contracting unnecessary debts. So frequently did this weakness manifest itself, that he was compelled to break up householdkeeping. The petitioner also asks for the custody of the 3-year-old son.

Elisha T. Morgan Honored.—Elisha T. Morgan, former lieutenant in Co. F, First Regiment, was presented with a diamond-studded gold watch chain last night by members of his former command. Sergeant Charles Elman made the presentation.

"LUCKY"
Is often the name given by careless and thoughtless people to those who are careful and thoughtful. "What a lucky woman," is said of one whose health and beauty proclaim her free from womanly diseases. The luck often consists in her having thoughtfully considered the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and proved its ability to cure the diseases peculiar to her sex.

"Favorite Prescription" is a reliable medicine for the cure of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"I had poor health for nine years," writes Mrs. Arminie Watkins, of Acme, Kanawha Co., W. Va. "Had female weakness, was very irregular and would suffer untold misery. Our family doctor did not do me any good and I concluded to write to you. When I wrote I had no idea that I would ever get well, but when your letter reached me I began to have hope. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and began to improve in strength. I was soon able to do the work of my family of six. Took eight bottles, three of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of 'Purifier'."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, alleged poisoner of Mrs. John P. Dunning and her sister, Mrs. Deane, is to have a new trial. Meanwhile Mrs. Botkin lives in the Branch County jail, in the outskirts of San Francisco, just as she has lived for the last four years, since a jury rendered a verdict of guilty and Judge Carroll Cook sentenced her to life imprisonment.

Judge Cook will try the case once more. The whole long and complex story will be reviewed. Witnesses will be brought from Delaware by both sides. John P. Dunning, husband of the murdered woman, and once the close friend but the accused Mrs. Botkin, will be here once more. San Francisco will again be the stage of a new melodrama.

"If I regain my liberty," said Mrs. Botkin, "the first thing I shall do is to go to my old mother, who has never known of my sorrow. I wish there were some way to go more quickly than by rail."

Outline of the Prosecution.
The prosecution will tell its story of how John P. Dunning, a New York man, who was living in San Francisco in 1898, lived with Mrs. Botkin, having left his wife in New York. Mrs. Botkin's husband sued her for divorce. She considered herself free and wanted Dunning to be free, so that she could go to New York as his wife. This is the alleged motive for getting Mrs. Dunning out of the way.

Then the prosecution will try to trace Mrs. Botkin's movements through a clerk of a drug store who sold her arsenic to bleach a hat. The clerk has stated that he told her other drugs were better for the purpose, but a description of the accused woman, through a girl in a candy store who sold a box of chocolates answering the description of the fatal box to a woman answering the description of the accused woman, through a clerk of a dry goods store who sold a handkerchief like the one in the candy box to some one whom she believes to be Mrs. Botkin, through a nurse, Mrs. Root, who remembers strange questions that Mrs. Botkin asked her about the time of the murder, such as: "How much arsenic does it take to kill a person?" "When a parcel is sent by registered mail does the sender have to sign his name?" and "Does one have to tell a doctor or a lawyer the truth when he is engaged professionally?"

This is the gist of the San Francisco testimony. From the East will come witnesses to tell of the finding of the box of candy by Mrs. Dunning, of the handkerchief included in the box and the messenger who delivered it, and of the contents of the box. With best love, Mrs. Botkin is said to be home-made cream, of the illness that followed after several members of the Dunning household had partaken of the candy, and of the death of Mrs. Dunning three days after.

Mrs. Pennington, father of Mrs. Dunning, believed the writing found in the box to be the same as the writing in several anonymous letters previously received by Mrs. Dunning. These letters, of the wrong-doing of her husband. The prosecution asserted that Mrs. Botkin was the writer in both cases.

The defense laughs at the evidence of the candy girl. She never positively identified Mrs. Botkin, nor did the other girl in the same shop who had been near at the time of the sale. They merely said the buyer resembled Mrs. Botkin. The shop is one of the busiest in town. How could a girl remember anyone to whom she had sold a pound of candy even as much as a week before? It is asked.

Mrs. John P. Dunning of Dover, Del., received the box of poisoned candy in August, 1898, and died from eating some of the contents. Her sister also died from the same cause. Dunning came forward when the postmark upon the box was determined to be San Francisco and said that Mrs. Botkin was guilty. She was arrested in Stockton, Cal., taken to San Francisco and tried and sentenced within six months.

Mrs. Botkin's Life in Jail.
For a little while I was entertained at the city jail," said Mrs. Botkin, "but most of my captivity has been spent here."

is the next corner. There is a dapper little stove, and pans, kettles and dishes are ranged on shelves above.

Does Her Own Cooking.
"I do all my own cooking because I could not endure the catering of the jail's chef," said Mrs. Botkin.

The library consists of a table covered with books, magazines and pamphlets. "Those big canvas volumes are my diary," she explained. "I have filled fourteen of them already."

The drawing room is an easy chair and a footstool. The bedroom contains a glittering white iron bedstead canopied in yellow. "I am my own carpenter," she told me. "That is how I come to have so many convenient shelves. I work with my own little hammer and saw. And I am my own painter. Therefore you see the wainscoting tinted in yellow and the furniture painted yellow. It is my favorite color. It means constancy and fidelity. As for sewing, I spend hours of every day at it, embroidering those cushions, making my caps and mending."

MERRY.

Will anyone ever Mary MacLane for Butte, eh?

If anyone has any such intentions, now is the appointed time. Mary is on the subject. She writes about it in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. You'll have to hurry, Mary says this is only the third time she has thought of matrimony in 21 years. She'll be 22 when she reaches this head again.

Foot ball! Raw! Raw! Shins raw! The president of an American university will talk of football in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. He thinks it has a great deal to do with properly equipping a young man for the battle of life. Of course, it toughens him up so a street car can't hurt him.

Throw out the lifeline, across the dark wave. There is a brother whom someone may save; Somebody's brother, eh, who then will dare To throw out the lifeline, his peril to share.

The man who wrote this boastful song is a contributor to the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. He tells how and why he wrote it.

Some of the most historic buildings in the city of St. Louis are being destroyed. The new St. Louis is growing too fast to give room to houses which were so truly a part of the old St. Louis that when the habitation of the city shall be complete, St. Louis, like the woman of old, will cry out to know:

"Is this me, or not me?"

An illustrated story upon this subject in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

Thirty millions tons of coal are taken from the mines of Illinois. "Back to the mines" with the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. It will tell you many things you do not know of them.

It is the nursery that makes the United States the greatest country in the world. Mrs. Hall Caine says so. All the time we have been thinking it was the army and navy and the soil. But no, the nursery does it. Mrs. Caine tells her story in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. She is the wife of the man who wrote "The Christian."

Very funny people entertained the readers of the Sunday Post-Dispatch in the comic supplement. They will be on deck next Sunday, but not on the deck of the biggest ship in the world, though that, too, will be exploited in an illustrated story in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

A London tailor says the long trousers men are wearing today will be worn for a million years.

Now, of course, you'll think they will need patching, but he means the style will prevail that long. A St. Louis tailor thinks not. He believes knickerbockers will supplant long trousers. These gentlemen discuss the subject in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.
